

SHIRE OF CAER ADAMANT HISTORY of SHIRE CHAMPIONS

SHIRE CHAMPION HISTORY

For a handful of years, the Shire hosted no great tourney of arms, and thus the title of Shire Champion remained with the last valiant victor. In 2007, during a gathering known as Swamp Thynges XVI, the Shire did once more call forth its warriors to a contest of might, open solely to those members of the Shire. From this noble contest arose a new Shire Champion, who was hailed by all. Henceforth, the tournament was held each year, as tradition and honor demanded.

A New Gathering – Tournament of the Fallen Stag

In 2011, whilst the warriors of the Shire did gather for their customary practice in the arts of armored combat, one among them espied a stag, fallen and lifeless, lying at the field's edge. The noble beast remained there many weeks, undisturbed, as though in solemn vigil. In that season, talk arose among the fighters of naming a new Shire Champion. One bold voice among them did propose the tournament be called the Tournament of the Fallen Stag, in remembrance of the creature who had, in stillness and silence, borne witness to their training. Thus was the name bestowed and a new tournament began.

A New Tradition - Tournament Champion

Now it came to pass, in 2014, the victor who did earn the highest honors in the tournament was not a member of the Shire, but a mighty warrior hailing from a neighboring land.

- The fighters of the Shire, having convened in earnest council, did agree that the title of Shire Champion should remain the privilege of one who hails from and bears allegiance to the Shire, and who, by strength of arms and tally of points, hath surpassed all other combatants of the Shire in the Tournament - or who, by the judgment of peers, is held to have most truly prevailed among them.
- Yet they also deemed it just and proper to bestow honor upon the true victor of the field, be they foreign or kin. Thus was born a new title, Tournament Champion, to be bestowed upon the armored warrior, be they of the Shire or of any distant branch, who doth earn the greatest tally of points in the field - or who, by the wisdom of the assembled is judged to have most gloriously triumphed over all other warriors in the tournament, regardless of their homeland.

Additional Champions

In 2025, the Shire did establish new honors to be granted unto those who prove most skilled in diverse noble pursuits. Henceforth, the titles of Champion in the Arts and Sciences, Archery, Bardic, Gaming, and Thrown Weapons - together with the established title of Fencing Champion - shall be awarded each year unto the worthiest competitors in their respective contests, whether they be of the Shire or come from distant lands.
